

BELL MIAMI

Bell's Service Center location in South Florida provides rotorcraft service, support and complete helicopter refurbishments to customers across the southeast United States, the Caribbean and beyond. Located in Fort Lauderdale, Florida at the Executive Airport (KFXE), this facility provides services for Federal, State and Local Parapublic Agencies, as well as HEMS, Oil & Gas and Corporate customers.

With a long list of satisfied clientele, this "one-stop-shop" can enhance helicopters from the smallest avionics upgrade to a complete aircraft rebuild. The facility maintains a factory-trained staff with a competitive shop rate and also offers a robust warranty program (1 year/1,000 hours—whichever occurs first). For customers looking to service or upgrade their Bell aircraft, this operation offers a trusted, cost-competitive solution.
